review. Ron Mickelson & Associates was approved for licensure.

3. DISCUSSION ITEMS:

NASBA Annual Meeting

Mr. Bowen discussed the NASBA Annual Meeting. There will be a Regional meeting held here in December. NASBA will pay for one board member and an administrator to attend. They discussed whether or not current state statutes would allow for computerized exams. There will be a draft of the agreement between Prometrics, NASBA and AICPA available by December 9, 2001. The cost of the exam was discussed. Peer Review was discussed. There is a state that may have a lawsuit filed against them if they deny a person licensure due to Peer Review.

The firm has one compilation client who will not allow the financial information to be made available. Continuing education was discussed. Mr. Bowen reported on the ethics break out session. The AICPA no longer has any task forces for independence. NASBA voted on a dues increase. Fund is used for travel costs so boards can be funded to attend meetings.
